

News From the Baltimore Bowmen

Next Meeting

Wednesday, July 16, 2008 @ 7:30PM in the Bowmen Clubhouse.

Message from the President

Please remember to fly the flag and honor our veterans over the July 4th weekend. We have several disabled veterans in our club, Frank Ward comes to mind. I would like to encourage all members to support their club by attending the Monday night 3D fun shoots. Have a great summer and remember to stay hydrated.

Upcoming Events for 2008

Monday Evening 3D Fun Shoot

July 7 – September 8
4:30 til Dark

MarylandWhitetail.com Bonfire / Traditional Bowhunters of Maryland Meeting / Hunter Tune-Up 3D

September 6 & 7

The SCA Atlantic Kingdom Archery Champion Shoot, June 20, 21, & 22 was a big success. There were over 150 people and over 60 archers.

The theme of the event was: the thundering hooves of the Mongolian Empire and their whirlwind of chaos to conquer the Knowne World. We invited people to display their prowess with bow and arrow/bolt, and plunder the day away.

Club member, Jamie Frailey with help of a small army converted the Baltimore Bowmen into a story of the Mongol way of life. The end goal was to pick the next Atlantian Kingdom Archery Champion.

The club looked awesome and the three-day event was incredible.

New Business

Motions were made and approved to allot up to $2,000 to purchase 6 new coolers and up to 25 folding tables. A motion was made and approved to pay Chris Hurt, the junior trick shooter at The BBTC, $200.
